

I am concerned that you are considering not allowing satellite radio broadcast local information. if I remember correctly you enacted regulations that forced satellite TV to offer local stations, why are you now contradicting yourself? it seems like you are bending to speical interest, agian!! let the consumers exercise thier choice via spending, if local broadcasters want people to listen then they should adjust thier programming to meet the desires of consumers.